ALE

ASSESSMENT LEARNING EXCHANGE

ALE Committee is an AALHE committee

Mission Statement

ALE is a gathering of assessment practitioners to informally share experiences, reflect on one's own practices, gather new ideas, and experience a sense of community through themed conversations.

Hosts quarterly peer gatherings

Recent Topics

- AI
- Assessment Reporting
- Difficult Areas to Quantify
- Everything Data
- Using Assessment for Improvement

ALE Takeaways

88 people attended an ALE event on average in the recent year

683 unique people attended an ALE event in the past 18 months

98% found ALE a valuable use of time

Join us as a committee member!

Take on your favorite role:

- Manage communication
- Coordinate the room facilitators
- Set up Zoom
- Setup peer exchange notes
- Evaluate the event
- Follow up with the attendees

We meet 1 or 2 times a month and get most work done in the meeting!

Dot Vote for a Future Topic

_____AI
_____Using assessment results
_____Faculty engagement
_____Assessment management technology
_____Manage small assessment office
_____Integrate curriculum support
_____Build partnerships

Learn More About Us

Association for the Assessment of Learning in Higher Education

AALHE

PROMOTING ASSESSMENT FOR LEARNING